Paris, March 4th 2008ASSURONE acquires 100% of ASSURONLINE businesses from Digitalents Capital to further expand its market share in France.

In an important step to accelerate its growth plan, ASSURONE, a top French online insurance broker has acquired 100% of ASSURONLINE businesses for an undisclosed amount in cash plus earn-out.

Through this acquisition and recent launch of its new platform, ASSURONE plans to grow its market share in France, realize greater economies of scale and negotiate better terms from insurance suppliers for the benefit of its customers.

“We are very happy to combine these two great businesses. The combined entities will now represent the largest independent online insurance broker in France” said Jeremy Garamond, co-founder of ASSURONE.

“We are delighted for this new phase of development for ASSURONLINE and are pleased to be associated with ASSURONE”, said Pierre Sapin, Managing Director of Digitalents Capital.
